Work Hard, Aim High, Have Fun!

Dear parent/ guardian,

We have such a busy term ahead with many different events planned already! There may be others to be added in the coming weeks, but here are the key dates for your diaries so far. Please see the newsletters in the coming weeks or notes from your child's teacher for further information. This Friday (28th) is the Macmillan coffee morning, so please help us by baking as many cakes as possible! The children can bring some money with them to spend on delicious treats.

If you are able to help with this event, please let me know this week.

Thank you for your continued support, K Riley.
